RAY LEVASSEUR writes from Florence, CO: "I've been in Colorado since Feb. 15 and I haven't seen a buffalo yet....The flight [from Marion] took approximately 2 ½ hours...This part of the state revealed itself as mostly scrub brush, soil erosion and various wastes. One beauty spot is the distant allure of snow-capped peaks....The commercial areas near the prison(s) are the ultimate in tackiness. Just what you'd expect from people who beg to have prisons built here. Elevation of Florence is 5,100 feet...First thing I saw was the maximum security 'camp' with its New Age veneer that houses corrupt politicians, thieving public officials, embezzlers and probably a significant number of snitches. Next we pass by the medium security FCI which is not quite so art deco but no assault on the senses either. You know you're getting warm as you pass by the maximum security USP with its multiple fences, rolls of razor wire and gun towers...We proceed to the literal end of the line, for both the compound and the federal prison system—Administrative Maximum....My wrists were cut and bleeding from the blackbox so I got swabbed and bandaged. The medical report [stated] that this was the condition I arrived in...Through the maze it became disorienting. Can't see outside. I'm in here and everything else is out there somewhere. Took me a few days to figure out configuration of the cell block. 12 cells per tier, 3 tiers per block, over and under...The cells are sound resistant, i.e. they're designed to suppress human sound...There really is an echo in the cell when you speak (which isn't often unless you want to talk to yourself). A cough sounds like a racket ball carom. You get a standard b & w idiot box. First time I snapped it on I see the face of Flush Rush Limbough spread across the screen. An omen? I got a concrete bunk, felt strip mattress and steel toilet. One newbe is the telephone-booth-sized shower in the cell...Water comes out in 90-second sprays that makes me feel like a house plant. The outer door is solid steel with a peepshow panel of Plexiglas. Through this door is a small trap of dead space, then a second door of steel bars. Can't see left or right—only the wall across from the cell. Meals are in cell. Lots of strip searches and cell shakedowns. All movement is in restraints...Isolation appears to be the cornerstone of ADX. One underlying purpose is to inflict enough psychological pain and sensory deprivation to have prisoners desperate for transfer elsewhere. It won't work for any constructive end, but that's beside the point."  "This yellow ribbon war on crime is about money and power. Who profits and who suffers. Corrections used to be the bottom feeders slowly but steadily eatin' up their relatively small portion of taxpayers dollars. No more. Today we have this huge swine with its snout deeply implanted in the public trough. Liberals and closet fascists make noise about money spent on Aid to Families with Dependent Children while enormous sums are thrown into a bottomless rathole called corrections."  "The only program I'm currently in is sleep deprivation, with the constant clanging and banging of electronic doors throughout the night as well as the periodic flashlight beam in the face and the cacophony of idle guards. It sometimes feels like the methamphetamine boogie.”  “This is the first time I’ve occupied a virgin cell. No one has lived in this cell before. I’ve never had a new house, new apartment, or new car, but now I’ve got a new cell. There’s something about occupying a proto-techno-fascist’s architectural wet dream that leave me feeling the loneliness of the long distance runner in worn out shoes....”

DR. MUTULU SHAKUR writes from Florence, CO: “Concerning the denial of This Just In... at Marion: Your timely response indicating that you were aware and have enlisted the effort of your lawyer, was the reason I believed that the problem would be dealt with. I did talk to my Unit Manager at Marion on the First Amendment Right to receive published materials.”  “Subsequently I was sent to Florence ADX prison and here was also denied This Just In...”  “A letter to me from Warden Bill R. Story here at Florence, dated Feb.23, 1995, denying Issue [9] stated in part: ‘Specifically, this publication consists of inmate letters of information to and about other inmates, their causes, organizations and strategies within state and federal prisons. Program statement 5266.5 entitled “Incoming Publications,” Section 3 part B states, “Publications which may be rejected by a warden include but are not limited to publications which meet one of the following criteria: (5) It (the publication) depicts, describes or encourages activities which may lead to the use of physical violence or group disruptions. Due to the examples cited above, your February 1995 publication of This Just In... is not suited for introduction into a correctional facility.”  Mutulu continues: “The letter suggests that I file an appeal within 15 days of the publication. It is my view that at this prison and stage in the struggle for P.P. and POWs, where possible, outside agitation and confrontation must be used to help protect whatever constitutional protections that still remain available to us and prisoners in general.”  “Love and respect to all the comrades...”  “I’m still an alligator, I go for mud and water...Stiff resistance.”

ANA LUCIA GELABERT writes from her “new address” Amarillo, TX State prison: Discipline? “Of course. Usual kangaroo result (guilty).”  Job? “Broom squad.”  “On pretext of moving from Marlin, Tx, to Amarillo, TX, all my papers and documents, including legal documents, were taken from me 3 weeks ago and still not returned.”  Health? “Illegally denied my 1.25 mg premarin which I must take daily, for now 3 weeks, with corresponding negative results, and asthma inhaler, which I also need with me daily.”  “TDC Hobby Unit (in Marlin) was the most brutal women’s prison in U.S., and the largest in world. Now carbon copy Neal unit in Amarillo, built with identical floor plan to Hobby is even more brutal than Hobby. So now Texas, big on everything except human feelings and justice, can boast of having the 2 largest female prisons in the world.”  Letters of protest needed to Gov. George Bush, State Capital, Austin, TX 78711. SHUT THEM DOWN!”

MAROON writes from SCI Greene, PA, where he was moved from Dallas, PA: “Told by the staff I would be in their long-term lock-up forever...I would ‘never’ be let out—except by court order.”  “Locked up all but 5 hours a week (exercise), and 3 five-minute showers.”  “I had been compiling research material for a book related to African-centered history. It had to be put on hold because I’m not allowed access to any of my research material—or any other books, except legal, and one religious book of choice.”  “Family is well and assisting in trying to break this ‘head lock’ they’re subjecting me to.”  “Greetings to Brother Sanyika Shakur. I’m looking forward to reading your book. You remind me of Bunchy Carter and an ‘early’ Eldridge Cleaver.” “The struggle continues—from generation to generation.”  “Greetings to Ruchel (Cinque) Magee.”  “I saw Mumia Abu-Jamal in the block law library, on my way to the clinic. We exchanged salutes and a coupla words.”  “My greetings to my buddy Chucky Africa, as well as Phil and Delbert Africa. Solidarity to all the other comrades.”

ZOLO AGONO AZANIA writes from Michigan City, IN: "I was transferred back to death row from the MCC at Westville, IN on 12/21/94. I was transported to the Allen County Jail at Fort Wayne, IN on 1/10/95. I was in court on 1/12/95 for a pretrial hearing. The bloodthirsty prosecutors filed another death sentence count against me based upon a prior murder charge that had been reduced to voluntary manslaughter in 1974."  Rules? "Restriction and confiscation of personal property which had been purchased from the prison commissary."  "I still write, do art and lots of legal work trying to fight the illegal colonial powers and to get out of prison."  "I am under the gun in the face of fire, death is commonplace, but I am still standing strong, prudent, resolute and steadfast on the case, fighting back hard for total liberation, genuine independence, economic self-reliance and a higher form and meaning of justice."

TARIG ELFARRIS MOHAMED EL HASSAN writes from MCC, NY: "Arrested on 6/24/93; put in hole till June '94, then put back 12/13/94."  I am in trial now, a lot of media coverage, a lot of religious bigotry, a lot of hate and lies! You see a case of very dirty racism and bias!"  Prison assignment? "To suffer from maltreatment going back and forth to the waste [stet]--harassment stunts from shackles."  "I have never been allowed to participate in any programs even though I always request [them]."  "Trying to write to legal institutions and agencies to expose the justice system in this united states concerning the p.p.'s and POWs."  "During jury selection and a week before opening statements, the judge knew that the government was attempting to re-enter into a cooperation agreement with one of the lead defendants, Siddig Ali. Mr. Ali's lawyer advised the judge that they would tell other defense counsel that they were attempting to get their client back into general population as their reason for conferences with the judge outside the presence of other defense lawyers. His lawyers also continued to state to the defense that they intended to present an entrapment defense and participate in the joint defense. Siddig Ali's lawyers opened to the jury with an entrapment defense. This defense was also joined in by other defendants. Shortly after opening statements, Mr. Ali pleaded guilty to all counts of the indictment in which he was charged. In so doing, he denied that he was entrapped and proceeded to inculcate all his co-defendants."  "The timing of the pleas was such that the government, with the Court's knowledge, allowed the defense to open on a joint defense, which they then proceeded to undermine immediately by finalizing their agreement with Mr. Ali. All defendants filed a mistrial motion supported by an affidavit from my lawyer Joyce C. London. This motion was denied by the same judge. This ruling is being appealed."

ψψψψ

ELEGGUA OSUN ELUFE writes from Napanoch, NY. New rules? "They are allowing AM/FM radios in the prison, another means of controlling and breaking down barriers."  "I am a member of a prisoner's educational support group in Newark, NJ, and community empowerment, because our communities need our education and spiritual strength."  "I am always elated to hear from my brothers and sisters and it is an inspiration and very motivating to read your input and occurrences."

ψψψψ

JAMES BARRETT writes from Florence ADX: "The February TJI was ixnayed for the usual reason. I will be appealing it and if or when it get into court, a lawyer from Boulder, CO, will handle it."  "There is also an ADX 'policy' that is constitutionally silly: a visiting attorney can see only one prisoner per day. That will be challenged in court."  This week I had two more personal letters 'returned to sender' for, supposedly, 3rd party communications. Gawd."

 "Anyway—the sun shines every day and I'm still delighted to be away from Marion. But this joint is too repressive, too uptight to not create problems. "  "Keep courage!"

ψψψψ

RICHARD WILLIAMS writes from Lompoc: "I'm not doing much here. Minding my own business. Very few political people here. I work at the hobby shop doing things out of wood."  "Venceremos!"

ψψψψ

CHUCK AFRICA writes from Graterford Prison, PA: "A very large portion of my energy has been devoted to helping bro's here organize support for Mumia Abu-Jamal (i.e., putting up information on all blocks, chapel bulletin boards, etc., with a brief history and statement of Mumia's plight) who faces death, legal lynching, political assassination by the state. The forces of racist reaction, led by right wing fascist Governor Ridge (PA) are ...determined to legislate the expediency of putting Mumia to death. They favor signing death warrants very soon. All appeals have been exhausted. Philadelphia and Pittsburgh Committees to Save Mumia are accepting donations from bro's here at Graterford. Attorney Leonard Weinglass is hard at work attempting to have M's case re-opened. ...The black Family Guardians are doing all that we can to generate, cajole, move, push bro's here to donate, write letters, get their folks to write Ridge, etc....Let's let these evil demons know that we won't make it easy for them to kill Mumia!!!"  "On the MOVE...."

RICHARD MAFUNDI LAKE writes from William E. Donaldson C.F., AL: "Appeal pending in US Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals"  "Father just had heart attack; is in intensive care; when stronger will have heart surgery."  Lake points out that the address for the Committee for Prisoner Support was incorrect: it should have been PO Box 12152, Birmingham, AL

SUSAN ROSENBERG writes from Marianna, FL: Letter dated "Feb.21. Remember Malcolm X."  She is now getting This Just In... after some lapses and after talks with unit manager.  "Sorry that the guys are having a hard time. No doubt after their move it will get worse. I know that the BOP has also tried to ban the magazine Prison Life—but they rescinded that here as well."  "I'm afraid we are all in for hard times. It seems that people can't jump on the 'I hate prisoners' bandwagon fast enough, and this time they are succeeding in narrowing what little 'rights' we have left."  "I expect to be transferred but when is not clear."  "La Lucha Continua!"

ψψψψ

STANDING DEER WILSON writes from Ellis 1, Huntsville, TX: "3rd parole hearing coming up in Aug. '96. I have 19 calendar years in on a life sentence. Letter writing campaign to kick off in February '96."  "Guards stole my books & I refused to work. Put on commissary restriction."  New rules: "(1)Cut our gate money from $200 to $50; (2) Any good time lost can never be earned back; (3) On March 1, 1995 all tobacco products became contraband for prisoners and guards alike."  Job: "Tending the roses."  Activity: "Spiritual advisor to N'COBRA"  "Writing about prison issues; working to save the life of Mumia Abu-Jamal; writing a book."  Health: "High blood pressure, diabetes & bad back. Arthritis. Just about killed me with Piroxicam, a medicine that is for arthritis and has killed over 200 people. I quite taking it just in time. They still give it to prisoners here."  "My love and strength go out to all engaged human beings everywhere. My prayers are especially with the brothers being moved to Colorado."  "Four Texas prisons are involved in an internal affairs probe in which 30 guards are being investigated for organized criminal conduct. 2 guards who are members of the guards' 'Blue Bandana Gang' have been indicted for aggravated assault, retaliation and tampering with a witness, while at another prison 10 guards are being prosecuted by the Feds in 6 separate cases of prison brutality. At the control unit prison 2 guards have been indicted for murder, while 3 other murders in a 4-month period have produced no charges. Texas now has 62 prisons housing 100,000 poor people, and they plan to open a new facility a week for the next 18 months. Your prison, love it or leave it."  "In the Spirit of Crazy Horse..."

ΨΨΨΨ

SUNDIATA ACOLI writes from USP Allenwood, PA: "Appealing parole hit."  "Was recently held in the hole during a bogus investigation which the whole prison knew I had nothing to do with, so after 1 ½ weeks I was released."

 Activity: "Art shop, Afrikan Cultural Society."  "No health problems; family fine."  "Love, struggle."

TOM MANNING's brother BOB reports on a trip to Tommy in Florence, CO: "I circled Florence's complex in 4 wheel drive very slowly. Having arrived in a deep freeze of a blizzard. I sought directions along the way, which was unnecessary as it turned out, the dark Mordor-like clouds were lit up and easy to read for miles. I found Citizens about the neighborhood in Fear. And the guards, on at least my side of the enclosed cubicle & heavy steel door behind the glass, beyond the telephone, were genuinely moved and cordially accommodating. Somewhere between shame and embarrassment I believe—though there be the many like walkin talkin zombies in robotic, soul-dead fashion—there are as well the few I found, humanly moved."  "I don't know what the 'norm' is up thataways--as it was radically foul weather. No other visiting civilians in that particular ADX complex. We were all and equally caught off guard, somewhat, Tommy and myself as well, it was a spontaneous decision, unannounced. And Tommy, by way of detailing Reality behind the steel door of that cubicle, would not have me unawares—however, he could not help cracking up to see, at least through this side of the glass, how anxiously polite and accommodating and apologetically human the guards were in regard to our visit, which had to end naturally at 3 pm; for which they genuinely apologized and then too, helped me keep my legs from buckling under on the way up the 30 steps and out."  "This friggin place is so emotional, how the hell can you's guys stand it..." And that was basically about all I had to say, to which we agreed in looks and body language, like Really, it's so Heavy. I got a few sincere 'Be Careful's and 'Have a Safe trip home...' As it was a bit perilous 'out there'"  "Tommy's Irish Eyes maintain the Smile under extremely adverse conditions; which is to express how 'Love Endures hasta La Siempre!'"  :I not only saw and felt along with all those broken bones, the floatin' bullet in your shoulder, along with the little personal details you'd kept to yourself all this time; the arthritis in that hip joint they pulled out of its socket that time you told 'em, 'I'y'ain't surrenderin' no hair sample, assholes, but...' As it was with the blood the judge ordered, you said, 'C'mon an get it...'  "As you put it, Brotherman, 'This blood or hair cannot be used for prosecutorial purposes in any court of "law", whatsoever!' And then your laughter, 'otherwise, they'd have my fukkin blood turn up on O.J.'s sox or sumwun else's trial...'  "Like I told the Family last night; his arms are tree trunks. He's like a Wounded Battleship; Warrior towards Peace y La Justicia..."

JAAN LAAMAN AND BILL DUNNE from Leavenworth send inspiring greetings in honor of International Women's Day.  "Red love!" from Jaan; "The future holds promise!" from Bill.

ΨΨΨΨ

MOHAMMAD A. SALAMEH writes from Leavenworth, KS: "First I would like to give my regards to the POWs and PP.s thruout the world. As well as the salutations to my co-defendants, especially Nidal Ayyad, and all the Muslims thruout the World (Ramadan Mubarak)."  "I would like to express my opinions about 'Siddig Ali' on the cheap, dirty and fabricated deal he made with the government on Shaikh Omar Abdu Rahman and the other brothers. What could they offer you that would make you fix your mouth to say such things like that about the Shaikh and the brothers?!!! Why didn't you say all that (what you testified in court) on tapes; when you were talking to Emad Salem (the government informant) trying to give him the impression that you are someone important in struggle against oppression...when all the time you just wanted some attention?!!! At the time when you were speaking all that foolishness, did it ever cross your mind that you could trust this man (Emad Salem), and if so, why didn't you say all that before?"  "About my conditions in USP Leavenworth: still they are forcing me to work in UNICOR; previously I went on a 6-day hunger strike. Still the same."  "This month been in and out of the hole for nothing--just trying to intimidate me."  "To all the brothers in MCC, New York, hang on to the rope of Allah (Subhanahu Wata'ata), be patient, keep the faith, stay strong, always keep your head up."  "Islam will prevail in the future..."

BASHIR HAMEED writes from Wende Prison, NY: "Abdul and I are still awaiting a decision from the 2nd Dept. of NY Appellate Div. I am also awaiting a decision from the 2nd circuit around my SHU time at Shawangunk"  "Seth and I are working with the African Cultural Awareness Program, which has been coming along fine. Good turnout of young brothers. Coached Muslim team to flag football championship."  "Same ole hypertension and now my knee seems to be arthritic so had to cut back on exercise program a little. It's called aging."  "Would like to extend my salaams to the Brother Maroon; I had the pleasure of meeting member of his family years ago in Philly while under. Thank Silvia for me and extend my salaams to everyone else."

MAULANA MODIBO EUSI writes from USP Marion: "I [am] in the process of doing some legal research to ascertain whether or not I can go directly into federal court to challenge the trite excuse the omnipotent administrator here gave for barring This Just In... However, I shall refrain from mounting any challenge-- concerning the omnipotent administrator's refusal to allow This Just In... into the bowels, until after the Liveright attorney has received a response. If the attorney can't resolve the matter with the omnipotent, I am willing, ready and prepared to take the matter to federal court."  "I greet you kindred spirits with the heart and soul of a New Afrikan Freedom Fighter! I salute with a mailed clenched fist!"  "The struggle most certainly continues.."

ABDUL-HAQQ writes from Clinton, NY: "The NY Court of Appeals could find no other reason to affirm our convictions than to say that our strategy was to get found guilty on purpose."  "Gov. Pataki is talking about double-bunking NYS Max prisons."  "I've been super busy. I'm taking 3 college courses: communications analysis, family and society and modes of inquiry II. Graduate in May. Taking a course in Shariah (Islamic Law) with the Muslim community here. Teaching a course in Islamic family life during Ramadan. I'm fasting during this blessed month to annihilate my faults and weaknesses. Editing Muslim newspaper. I've been communicating with various student organizations to raise an irresistible force to rebut the post Nov. 8th devolution. Steady progress is being made with my book. I recently mailed out 2 new essays: (1) We can stop criminal violence without disarming the masses (2) The need for an anti-amerikkkan student movement. I'll be able to give more time to other projects after I graduate in May."  "Power equals work done in a time frame. Six worker bees are more productive than a thousand flies."

SEKOU CINQUE T.M. KAMBUI is still in Easterling C.F., Alabama. His wife Aysha Bey writes from close by: "Next parole hearing is scheduled for April 1995. Letters of support should be sent to Rev. John Nettles, Board of Pardons & Paroles, 501 Dexter Ave., Montgomery, AL 36130."  "Visitation has become more restrictive. [We are] not permitted to walk around the room or approach any window...[or to] walk in the yard ...We are permitted one kiss and a hug upon entry and departure; any additional show of affection is punished by a write-up for the prisoner and possible restriction of visitation upon the family member."  "The cost of phone calls remains 3 times the amount charged by standard companies like AT&T. Even other large prison telephone companies charge more reasonable rates than those charged by Alabama phone companies."  "Sekou is involved in putting together a program for Black History Month...Because of the isolated location of the prison outside speakers and supporters have difficulty reaching the facility."  "Continues to teach, whether Afrocentric programs or law...He is devoted to legal issues relating to the dismissal of his lawsuit against the Parole Board, which cited racial discrimination in parole consideration."  "[Because of] poor lighting Sekou has begun to exhibit problems with close vision."  "Wife, stepdaughter and grandson have returned to Birmingham and are in place, ready for the parole hearing."  "After 20 years, we have finally managed to obtain the original transcripts of the Birmingham conviction...The dismissal of the 4-year-old lawsuit challenging the judgment of the parole board in parole cases (especially those involving violent offenders and/or Black men) was another proof of the criminal nature of the court system and white privilege. The judge is a strong supporter of the victims' rights groups and involved strongly in various Christian pre-release programs (forbidden to Muslim men seeking support for release)."

Now at MCC, my book manuscript cannot be found; my pamphlets are not in my personal property, and many books that I was working out of for historical data are missing. When I ask to check my property, prisoncrats said, it has been sent back to de prison."  "Heating/cooling ventilation inside de cells often blow out a sewage (feces) smell or cigar odor, causing respiratory problems. Also contaminated water; it is hard to escape tuberculosis here. Wicked system"  "Love to all POWs/P.P.'s, Oppressed."

EDDIE HATCHER writes from Statesville, NC: "They've moved me about 8 times in the last 3 months. Each time is a little further from Mama and home. All of the moves they make seem very calculated, like they are trying to put something in motion. I don't know whether they are trying to set me up to be killed or to get more time."  "I'll have my 7th parole review Feb. 18 and I should get the 'Parole Denied' letter around Feb.20. This could be the last parole review I'll have before I max out in about 18 months. The government seems to be extremely fearful of my being set free. I just hope they don't set me up."  Once released, I plan to start my own radio talk show, so if anyone has any ideas or suggestions they're much needed. I still put out the monthly newsletter. All with Mama's help--I couldn't make it without her. She has become more of a firebrand than I am."  "The World Council of Churches is presenting my case before the United Nations Human Rights Conference this year."  "Love for the struggle..."

I love it, though somehow I did something to my already bad leg, so I'm sidelined till the pain subsides--a few days only I hope!"  "I am tutoring a young woman in math 4 days a week. Just read Bell Hooks' Teaching to Transgress on education as a liberating experience. So I'm trying to figure out how to be a better teacher, to understand more how a sister learns so she can 'get it' and have the confidence to defeat the testing monster. I recommend this book of essays."  "Stay well. Carry on!"
